

GREATER COPENHAGEN REGION

ABOUT GREATER COPENHAGEN REGION (LONG)

Greater Copenhagen region stretches over the borders of Denmark and Sweden. With 4.4 million inhabitants and 17 universities, it's the largest metropolitan area in the Nordics and a global hub for growth, sustainable solutions and innovation. The region offers world-class research facilities and a creative business environment. Outstanding infrastructure makes Greater Copenhagen Region highly connected via rail, road, air and sea. The two main cities of the region, Sweden's Malmö and Denmark's Copenhagen are just a half hour train-ride apart. Its strategic location makes Greater Copenhagen Region the link between 25 million consumers in Scandinavia and 125 million in Northern Europe.